Roger McCarty killed in scuffle over a gun

Roger Allen McCarty, 31, of Olympia, was fatally wounded by a gunshot at about 5 a.m. Sunday, while standing in the doorway of a trailer owned by Wheeler Vance, according to police.

The shooting took place five miles east of Owingsville on the Old Man Road during a three-man scuffle over a gun, according to a report from the Bath County Sheriff's Office. The sheriff said that apparently Roger McCarty, not involved in the struggle, was killed when the gun went off as someone grabbed it.

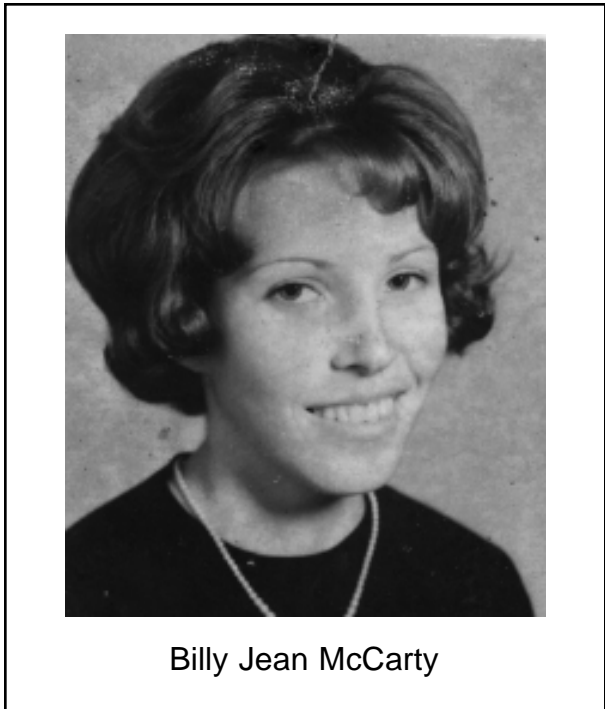

Arrested in connection with the incident were Corbett Kendall and Harold Dale McCarty, both presently lodged in the Bath County jail on charges of murder.

A native of Bath County, McCarty was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam McCarty, of Olympia. He is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. Doris Shelton, Olympia and Billie Jean McNabb, Sudith; two brothers, Bobby Dean and Larry Mitchell, of Owingsville and his grandmother, Mrs. Lillie Powers, Owingsville.

Funeral services were conducted at 3 p.m. Tuesday in the Richardson and Hunt Funeral Home by the Rev. Virgil Lyons, with burial in the Oldfield Cemetery.
